

Leadership Expectations

Thank you for expressing interest in student leadership at Good News. There are some basic expectations for those who will be in leadership at Good News.

- We expect that all working in student ministries have a desire to serve God with a whole heart
- We expect that all working in student ministries are committed to spiritual growth through individual and group study of Scripture
- We expect that all working in student ministries have a personal relationship with Jesus Christ as Savior

Please consider these carefully with prayer. There is no expectation of perfection – just humility of heart and spirit of being teachable in these areas.

Behavioral Expectations

- We expect that all working in student ministries are serious about lifestyle choices because we know that the choices we make tell others about our commitment to Christ
- We expect that all working in student ministries commit to a lifestyle that honor God
- We expect that all working in student ministries remain teachable and willing to grow and stretch in our faith and obedience

Leadership Expectations

- We expect that all working in student ministries to complete a background check once each calendar year if you are under 18 years old and at least once if you are over 18 years old
- We expect that all working in student ministries to be consistent in attendance at leadership meetings and youth events and communicate clearly if unable to attend meetings
- We expect that all working in student ministries be friendly and warm to all who attend youth group
- We expect that all working in student ministries reasonably put aside close personal relationships (best friends, boyfriend/girlfriend, spouse, children) for the sake of ministry at youth events
- We expect that all working in student ministries will have a positive attitude about the youth ministry and others working together on the team
- We expect that all working in student ministries will use their spiritual gifts and talents to build up the church through involvement in youth ministry
